Universidad Rey Juan Carlos

Registradores DE ESPAÑA

CÁTEDRA DAO ACADÉMICA
URJC – FUNDACIÓN REGISTRAL

JORNADA · SEMINAR · 2.12.2026

Gobernanza global de la IA y relevancia en las sociedades, ciberseguridad, responsabilidad civil y penal

Global AI Governance and Its Relevance for Companies, Cybersecurity, Civil and Criminal Liability

Presentación de la Cátedra «DAO académica para la innovación registral y la transformación digital» URJC–Fundación Registral

Launch of the Chair "Academic DAO for Registry Innovation and Digital Transformation" URJC–Fundación Registral

FECHA · DATE

Miércoles, 2 de diciembre de 2026
Wednesday, 2 December 2026
09:00 – 14:15

LUGAR · VENUE

Universidad Rey Juan Carlos
Facultad de Ciencias Jurídicas y Sociales, Campus de Vicálvaro (Madrid)
Salón de actos del edificio departamental
Faculty of Legal and Social Sciences, Vicálvaro Campus Assembly Hall, Departmental Building

ORGANIZAN · ORGANISERS

Cátedra «DAO académica»
DYDEM-URJC, Grupo de Investigación de Alto Rendimiento en Digitalización y Derecho de la Empresa

PROGRAMA RESUMIDO · PROGRAMME AT A GLANCE

09:00	Acreditación y café de bienvenida · Registration and welcome coffee
09:30	Apertura institucional · Institutional opening
10:00	Sesión I · IA y gobierno corporativo · AI and corporate governance
11:30	Pausa para café · Coffee break
12:00	Sesión II · IA y ciberseguridad · AI and cybersecurity
13:30	Sesión III · Responsabilidad civil y penal de la IA · Civil and criminal liability of AI
14:15	Clausura · Closing

Programa · Programme

09:00 – 09:30 Acreditación y café de bienvenida · Registration and welcome coffee

09:30 – 10:00

Apertura institucional y presentación

Institutional Opening and Presentation

Excmo. Sr. D. Abraham Duarte Muñoz
Rector Magnífico de la Universidad Rey Juan Carlos
Rector of Universidad Rey Juan Carlos

D.ª M.ª Luz Sánchez Jáuregui
Presidenta del Patronato de la Fundación Registral
Chair of the Board of Trustees, Fundación Registral

Ilma. Sra. D.ª María Enciso Alonso-Muñumer
Decana de la Facultad de Ciencias Jurídicas y Políticas, URJC
Dean of the Faculty of Legal and Political Sciences, URJC

D.ª Teresa López Ruiz
Directora de Relaciones Institucionales del Colegio de Registradores de España
Director of Institutional Relations, Spanish Association of Property and Commercial Registrars

Prof.ª Dra. D.ª Ana Felicitas Muñoz Pérez
Directora de la Cátedra «DAO académica para la innovación registral y la transformación digital» URJC–Fundación Registral
Director of the Chair "Academic DAO for Registry Innovation and Digital Transformation"

10:00 – 11:30 SESIÓN I · SESSION I

Inteligencia artificial, gobierno corporativo, compañías gestionadas por IA autónoma y consumidores

Artificial Intelligence, Corporate Governance, AI-Managed Companies and Consumers

MODERA · CHAIR

Prof. Dr. Guillermo Guerra Martín
Profesor Titular de Derecho Mercantil, URJC (acreditado a Catedrático) · Socio de Gómez-Acebo & Pombo
Professor of Commercial Law, URJC (accredited as Full Professor) · Partner, Gómez-Acebo & Pombo

Empresas gestionadas por agentes de IA: ¿un modelo para el futuro?
Agent-Managed Companies: A Model for the Future?
Corporate Liability for AI and the New Type of Agent-Managed Company (AMC)

Prof. Dr. Martin Petrin
Catedrático Jarislowsky Dimma Mooney de Gobierno Corporativo, Universidad de York · Osgoode Hall Law School
Jarislowsky Dimma Mooney Chair in Corporate Governance, York University

La IA y su influencia en las funciones y competencias del órgano de administración de las sociedades de capital
AI and Its Influence on the Functions and Powers of the Board of Directors of Capital Companies

Prof.ª Dra. María Concepción Chamorro Domínguez
Profesora Titular de Derecho Mercantil, URJC
Tenured Professor of Commercial Law, URJC

IA y consumidores
AI and Consumers

Prof. Dr. Jorge Luis Tomillo Urbina
Catedrático de Derecho Mercantil, Universidad de Cantabria

Full Professor of Commercial Law, University of Cantabria

11:30 – 12:00 Pausa para café · Coffee break

12:00 – 13:30

SESIÓN II · SESSION II

Gobernanza de la inteligencia artificial y ciberseguridad: geopolítica, política universal, ciberataques y nuevos riesgos digitales

Artificial Intelligence Governance and Cybersecurity: Geopolitics, Universal Policy, Cyberattacks and Emerging Digital Risks

MODERA CHAIR
Prof. Dr. Antonio Serrano Acitores
Profesor Titular de Derecho Mercantil, URJC · Experto en Transformación Digital
Tenured Professor of Commercial Law, URJC · Digital Transformation Expert

¿Cómo incide la IA en la ciberseguridad?
How Does AI Impact Cybersecurity?
Prof.ª Dra. Miriam Goldby
Catedrática de Derecho Marítimo, de Seguros y Mercantil, Queen Mary University of London
Professor of Shipping, Insurance and Commercial Law, Queen Mary University of London

Gobernanza universal de la IA y el auge de la computación y la tecnología cuántica
Universal AI Governance and the Rise of Quantum Computing and Technology
Prof. Dr. Rostam J. Neuwirth
Profesor Distinguido y Director del Departamento de Estudios Jurídicos Globales, Universidad de Macao
Distinguished Professor and Head of the Department of Global Legal Studies, University of Macau

El problema de los límites y la IA como poder geopolítico
The Problem of Limits and AI as a Geopolitical Power
Prof. Fernando Velasco Fernández
Profesor Titular · Coordinador del Grado en Inteligencia, Seguridad y Diplomacia, URJC
Tenured Professor · Coordinator of the Bachelor's Degree in Intelligence, Security and Diplomacy, URJC

13:30 – 14:15

SESIÓN III · SESSION III

Claves para el debate sobre la atribución de la responsabilidad jurídico-civil y penal de la IA autónoma. IA y consumo

Key Issues in the Debate on the Attribution of Civil and Criminal Liability to Autonomous AI. AI and Consumers

MODERA CHAIR
Prof.ª Dra. Beatriz García Sánchez
Profesora Titular de Derecho Penal, URJC
Tenured Professor of Criminal Law, URJC

Imputación penal de la IA
Criminal Imputation and AI
Prof.ª Dra. Inês Fernandes Guerreiro Godinho
Profesora Asociada, Universidade Lusófona · Investigadora, CEAD Francisco Suárez
Associate Professor, Universidade Lusófona · Researcher, CEAD Francisco Suárez

IA autónoma y responsabilidad por diseño

Autonomous AI and Liability by Design

D. Alonso Hurtado
Miembro de la Junta Directiva de ASCOM · Socio de Ecija
Member of the Board of Directors, ASCOM · Partner, Ecija

IA y cumplimiento normativo
AI and Regulatory Compliance

Prof. Dr. Luis Cazorla González-Serrano
Profesor Titular de Derecho Mercantil, URJC · Socio director, Cazorla Abogados
Tenured Professor of Commercial Law, URJC · Managing Partner, Cazorla Abogados

14:15

Clausura de la jornada

Closing of the Seminar

D. Carlos Balmisa García-Serrano
Secretario General del Colegio de Registradores de España
Secretary General, Spanish Association of Registrars

D. Luis Fernández del Pozo
Colegio de Registradores de España
Spanish Association of Registrars

Prof.ª Dra. María del Sagrario Navarro Lérida
Profesora Titular de Derecho Mercantil, Universidad de Castilla-La Mancha
Tenured Professor of Commercial Law, University of Castilla-La Mancha

INSCRIPCIÓN · REGISTRATION

Se requiere inscripción en el enlace para asistir a la jornada, en modalidad presencial u online; la asistencia presencial es imprescindible para la obtención de créditos RAC (pendiente de reconocimiento).

Registration through the link is required to attend the seminar, either in person or online; in-person attendance is required to obtain RAC academic credits (recognition pending).

Formulario de inscripción · Registration form

o escanee el código QR · or scan the QR code

Ponentes · Panelists

Guillermo Guerra Martín MODERA SESIÓN I · CHAIR, SESSION I

Gómez-Acebo & Pombo · Universidad Rey Juan Carlos

Socio de Mercantil, codirector de Mercado de Capitales y director de Gobierno Corporativo de Gómez-Acebo & Pombo, especializado en gobierno corporativo, mercado de valores (salidas a bolsa, ampliaciones de capital, OPAs) y fusiones y adquisiciones. Ha sido secretario del consejo de administración de sociedades del IBEX 35, del mercado continuo y de BME Growth, así como de entidades de crédito, y Chambers & Partners y Legal 500 lo reconocen como uno de los abogados destacados en Corporate/M&A y Capital Markets. Profesor Titular (acreditado a Catedrático) de Derecho Mercantil de la Universidad Rey Juan Carlos, es licenciado en Derecho (Grupo Especial) por la Universidad Complutense de Madrid y obtuvo el Premio Extraordinario de Doctorado; ha sido investigador visitante en Harvard Law School y en la Universidad de Bolonia. Es profesor del Instituto de Consejeros-Administradores (IC-A) y de programas de máster en IE Business School, ICADE, ISDE y el Centro de Estudios Garrigues, y autor de varios libros y numerosos artículos sobre gobierno corporativo, Derecho de sociedades y mercado de valores.

Partner in the Corporate practice, co-head of Capital Markets and head of Corporate Governance at Gómez-Acebo & Pombo, specialising in corporate governance, capital markets (IPOs, capital increases, takeover bids) and mergers and acquisitions. He has served as secretary to the board of companies listed on the IBEX 35, the continuous market and BME Growth, as well as credit institutions, and is ranked by Chambers & Partners and Legal 500 as a leading lawyer in Corporate/M&A and Capital Markets. Tenured Professor (accredited as Full Professor) of Commercial Law at Rey Juan Carlos University, he holds a law degree (Special Group) from the Complutense University of Madrid and received the Extraordinary Doctoral Award; he has been a Visiting Researcher and Visiting Scholar at Harvard Law School and a Foreign Researcher at the University of Bologna. He teaches at the Institute of Directors and Administrators (IC-A) and on master's programmes at IE Business School, ICADE, ISDE and the Garrigues Centre, and is the author of several books and numerous articles on corporate governance, company law and securities law.

Martin Petrin SESIÓN I · SESSION I

York University · Osgoode Hall Law School · Schulich School of Business

Martin Petrin is the Jarislowsky Dimma Mooney Chair in Corporate Governance at York University, holding a joint appointment at Osgoode Hall Law School and the Schulich School of Business. An internationally recognized scholar, his work focuses on corporate governance, business law, corporate regulation, mergers and acquisitions, managerial liability, and corporate theory, with particular emphasis on the impact of artificial intelligence and emerging technologies on corporate decision-making and governance structures.

Professor Petrin holds an S.J.D. from UCLA School of Law, an LL.M. from Columbia Law School, and both a Ph.D. and J.D. from the University of St. Gallen, Switzerland. Prior to joining York University, he held senior academic positions at Western University and University College London, where he served as Vice Dean (Innovation & Enterprise) and Deputy Director of the Centre for Commercial Law.

His research has been published in leading international journals and has influenced both academic debate and legal practice, including citations by courts such as the Delaware Court of Chancery. He is the author and editor of several influential works on corporate governance, corporate liability, and business regulation, including Corporate Governance: Law, Regulation and Theory and Corporate Duties to the Public.

Professor Petrin's scholarship combines comparative, interdisciplinary, and policy-oriented perspectives, contributing significantly to contemporary discussions on corporate accountability, technological innovation, and the future of business regulation in a rapidly evolving global economy.

María Concepción Chamorro Domínguez SESIÓN I · SESSION I

Universidad Rey Juan Carlos · Departamento de Derecho Privado

Doctora en Derecho por la Universidad Rey Juan Carlos (Premio Extraordinario de Doctorado), donde es Profesora Titular de Derecho Mercantil. Su investigación se centra en el Derecho de sociedades —es autora de monografías sobre las acciones rescatables en sociedades cotizadas y sobre las ofertas públicas de adquisición competidoras—, en la relación entre Derecho societario y sostenibilidad (dirigió el proyecto PID2020-113852RB-I00 sobre los requisitos de sostenibilidad de las sociedades cotizadas) y en la influencia de la digitalización en la regulación de las sociedades de capital. Es miembro del Comité de Gestión de la Acción COST CA25166 STONE, directora ejecutiva de la Revista de Derecho del Mercado de Valores, vicepresidenta del Comité de Ética de la Investigación de la URJC y directora del Máster en Dirección Internacional Contable y Financiera. Cuenta con tres sexenios de investigación y la certificación de profesora excelente del programa DOCENTIA.

She holds a PhD in Law from Rey Juan Carlos University (Extraordinary Doctoral Award), where she is Tenured Professor of Commercial Law. Her research focuses on company law — she is the author of monographs on redeemable shares in listed companies and on competing takeover bids —, on the links between company law and sustainability (she led research project PID2020-113852RB-I00 on sustainability requirements for listed companies) and on the impact of digitalisation on the regulation of capital companies. She is a member of the Management Committee of COST Action CA25166 STONE, Executive Director of the Revista de Derecho del Mercado de Valores, Vice President of the URJC Research Ethics Committee and Director of the Master's in International Accounting and Financial Management. She holds three six-year research merit awards and the DOCENTIA "excellent professor" certification.

Jorge Luis Tomillo Urbina SESIÓN I · SESSION I

Universidad de Cantabria · Cátedra Euroamericana de Protección Jurídica de los Consumidores

Catedrático de Derecho Mercantil de la Universidad de Cantabria y doctor en Derecho por la Universidad de Alcalá (summa cum laude), formado en la escuela de los profesores Ángel Rojo, Rodrigo Uría y Aurelio Menéndez. Su investigación abarca la contratación mercantil, las garantías reales y el Derecho cambiario, concursal, societario, marítimo y de consumo; ha publicado veinte libros y más de un centenar de artículos en las editoriales y revistas más prestigiosas de su especialidad. Fundó y dirige la Cátedra Euroamericana de Protección Jurídica de los Consumidores, una red de 17 universidades de Europa y América. Ha sido Vocal de la Sección de Derecho Mercantil de la Comisión General de Codificación para la elaboración de un Código Mercantil, decano de la Facultad de Derecho y vicerrector de la Universidad de Cantabria, y es Doctor Honoris Causa por la Universidad Autónoma de Santo Domingo «por sus valiosos aportes académico-científicos al desarrollo de una cultura universal en defensa de los derechos fundamentales del consumidor». Ha recibido el Premio a la Trayectoria Internacional en el ámbito del Derecho de la Salud, concedido por la Red Iberoamericana de Derecho Sanitario.

Full Professor of Commercial Law at the University of Cantabria, and holder of a PhD in Law from the University of Alcalá (summa cum laude), he was trained under the tutelage of professors Ángel Rojo, Rodrigo Uría, and Aurelio Menéndez. His research encompasses commercial contracting, secured transactions, and the law governing negotiable instruments, insolvency, corporations, maritime matters, and consumer protection. He has authored twenty books and over one hundred articles, published by the most prestigious academic presses and journals in his field. He founded and currently directs the Euro-American Chair for the Legal Protection of Consumers, a network comprising 17 universities across Europe and the Americas. He has served as a member of the Commercial Law Section of the General Codification Commission—tasked with drafting a Commercial Code—as well as Dean of the Faculty of Law and Vice-Rector at the University of Cantabria. He holds an honorary doctorate (Doctor Honoris Causa) from the Autonomous University of Santo Domingo, conferred "for his valuable academic and scientific contributions to the development of a global culture in defense of the fundamental rights of consumers". Furthermore, he is the recipient of the International Career Achievement Award in the field of Health Law, granted by the Ibero-American Network for Health Law.

Antonio Serrano Acitores MODERA SESIÓN II · CHAIR, SESSION II

Universidad Rey Juan Carlos

Licenciado en Derecho por ICADE y doctor en Derecho con Premio Extraordinario por la Universidad Rey Juan Carlos, con una tesis sobre capital riesgo, es experto en Transformación Digital, Innovación y Liderazgo por el MIT y está acreditado a Catedrático. Inició su carrera en el departamento de capital riesgo de Linklaters y desde 2007 es socio de su propio despacho. Es profesor en la URJC —donde es coordinador de Digitalización, Innovación y Comunicación de la Facultad de Ciencias Jurídicas y Políticas—, en el Centro de Estudios Garrigues y en Sagardoy Business & Law School; ha sido ponente en Harvard Law School y en el MIT, donde coordina el Professional Certificate in Legal Tech in the Digital Age. Elegido en dos ocasiones mejor profesor de Derecho Mercantil de España por Todojuristas, es autor de once libros y más de ciento diez publicaciones de Derecho mercantil, digital, tributario y administrativo, entre ellas monografías sobre el metaverso y sobre Derecho de la innovación y contratación.

He holds a law degree from ICADE and a PhD in Law with Extraordinary Distinction from Rey Juan Carlos University, with a thesis on venture capital; he is an expert in Digital Transformation, Innovation and Leadership from MIT and is accredited as Full Professor. He began his career in the venture capital department of Linklaters and since 2007 has been a partner in his own firm. He teaches at URJC—where he is Coordinator of Digitalisation, Innovation and Communication at the Faculty of Law and Political Science—, the Garrigues Centre and Sagardoy Business & Law School, and has spoken at Harvard Law School and MIT, where he coordinates the Professional Certificate in Legal Tech in the Digital Age. Twice named best Commercial Law professor in Spain by Todojuristas, he is the author of eleven books and more than 110 publications on commercial, digital, tax and administrative law, including monographs on the metaverse and on innovation law and contracting.

Miriam Goldby SESIÓN II · SESSION II

Queen Mary University of London · Centre for Commercial Law Studies

Miriam Goldby is Professor of Shipping, Insurance and Commercial Law and Director of Research at the Centre for Commercial Law Studies, Queen Mary University of London. An internationally recognized expert in commercial, maritime, and insurance law, her research focuses on the legal implications of digital transformation in global trade, financial services, and transport industries. Professor Goldby has held several leadership positions within the Centre for Commercial Law Studies, including Director of the Insurance, Shipping and Aviation Law Institute and Founder and Director of the International Shipping Law LL.M. programme. She is widely known for her pioneering work on the digitalization of trade documentation and electronic commerce, particularly in the maritime sector.

Her scholarship has made significant contributions to the fields of shipping law, insurance law, financial regulation, and digital trade. She is the author of the leading monograph Electronic Documents in Maritime Trade: Law and Practice (Oxford University Press), a landmark work examining the legal and practical challenges arising from the transition from paper-based to electronic trade documentation. Professor Goldby has received research funding from major institutions including the British Academy, the Economic and Social Research Council (ESRC), and Lloyd's of London. She has also contributed to policy-oriented research initiatives undertaken by the Bank of England and the Law Commission of England and Wales.

Her international engagement includes participation in the work of UNCITRAL Working Group IV on Electronic Commerce, which contributed to the adoption of the Model Law on Electronic Transferable Records in 2017, as well as her involvement in the Law Commission's Electronic Trade Documents Project. Through her research and policy work, she has played a leading role in shaping the legal frameworks that support digital trade, electronic commerce, and innovation in global commercial transactions.

Rostam J. Neuwirth SESIÓN II · SESSION II

University of Macau · Department of Global Legal Studies

Rostam J. Neuwirth is a Distinguished Professor and Head of the Department of Global Legal Studies, internationally recognized for his contributions to research and teaching in international law, global economic law, and the regulation of emerging technologies.

His academic background includes a Doctor of Laws degree from the European University Institute (Florence), a Master's degree in Comparative and International Law from McGill University, and advanced legal studies undertaken at the University of Graz and the University of Auvergne. Throughout his academic career, he has taught and researched in areas including WTO and international trade law, European Union law, transnational law, intellectual property, and the creative economy.

Professor Neuwirth's research spans a wide range of interdisciplinary fields, including international economic law, law and technology, cultural heritage law, comparative law, and legal theory. He is particularly known for his pioneering work on legal oxymora and their relevance to contemporary legal and regulatory frameworks.

Among his recent publications is The EU Artificial Intelligence Act: Regulating Subliminal AI Systems (Routledge, 2023), which examines the challenges posed by artificial intelligence and emerging regulatory approaches. Through his scholarship, public lectures, and widely recognized TEDx talk, he has contributed to global debates on innovation, digital governance, and the legal implications of technological transformation in the twenty-first century.

Fernando Velasco Fernández SESIÓN II · SESSION II

Universidad Rey Juan Carlos · Cátedra Servicios de Inteligencia y Sistemas Democráticos

Doctor en Filosofía y Licenciado en Ciencias Morales. Profesor titular de Filosofía Moral y Director de la Cátedra Servicios de Inteligencia y Sistemas Democráticos de la URJC. Director del Máster en Analista de Inteligencia. Coordinador del Grado en Inteligencia, Seguridad y Diplomacia. Editor de revistas científicas sobre Inteligencia y

Seguridad y autor de numerosos artículos y publicaciones sobre: Cultura de Inteligencia, la Inteligencia como disciplina académica, Ética y Servicios de Inteligencia.

Doctor of Philosophy and Bachelor of Moral Sciences, he is Tenured Professor of Moral Philosophy and Director of the Chair of Intelligence Services and Democratic Systems. Director of the Master's Degree in Intelligence Analysis. Coordinator of the Bachelor's Degree in Intelligence, Security and Diplomacy. Editor of academic journals on Intelligence and Security, and author of numerous articles and publications on Intelligence Culture, Intelligence as an Academic Discipline, and Ethics and Intelligence Services.

Beatriz García Sánchez

MODERA SESIÓN III · CHAIR, SESSION III

Universidad Rey Juan Carlos

Licenciada en Derecho por la Universidad Complutense de Madrid (1994) y doctora por la Universidad Rey Juan Carlos, donde es Profesora Titular de Derecho Penal y donde ha desarrollado casi toda su docencia en grado, máster y doctorado. Su investigación se ha centrado en la cooperación jurídica internacional y el Derecho penal internacional, con monografías sobre los límites espaciales de la ley penal (2004) y sobre la extradición en el Derecho interno, internacional y europeo (2005), y trabajos sobre la orden europea de detención y entrega, el reconocimiento mutuo y los derechos fundamentales en la UE, la inmigración, la corrupción y el terrorismo. Ha participado en proyectos nacionales de investigación sobre criminalidad transnacional, terrorismo y aporofobia, ha dirigido cuatro tesis doctorales y es miembro del Comité Científico de la Revista Sistema Penal Crítico de la Universidad de Salamanca.

She graduated in law from the Complutense University of Madrid (1994) and holds a PhD from Rey Juan Carlos University, where she is Tenured Professor of Criminal Law and has done most of her undergraduate, master's and doctoral teaching. Her research focuses on international legal cooperation and international criminal law, with monographs on the territorial limits of criminal law (2004) and on extradition in domestic, international and European law (2005), and work on the European Arrest Warrant, mutual recognition and fundamental rights in the EU, immigration, corruption and terrorism. She has taken part in national research projects on transnational crime, terrorism and aporophobia, has supervised four doctoral theses and is a member of the Scientific Committee of the Revista Sistema Penal Crítico (University of Salamanca).

Inês Fernandes Godinho

SESIÓN III · SESSION III

Universidade Lusófona · University of Coimbra

Inês Fernandes Godinho is an Associate Professor at the Universidade Lusófona. She holds a PhD in Law (Criminal Sciences) from the Universidade Lusófona and is an integrated researcher at CEAD Francisco Suárez, of which she is currently Vice-President (ULusófona) and a collaborating researcher at the University of Coimbra Institute for Legal Research (UC). She is also a member of the Centre for Biomedical Law (CDB), the European Association of Health Law (EAHL), the European Law Institute (ELI), the Portuguese Ass. of Law Theory, Philosophy of Law and Social Philosophy and the International Foundation for Criminal Sciences.

In 2016 she won an award from the Max-Planck Institut (Freiburg), in 2017 she was an Invited Assistant Professor at the Martin-Luther Universität Halle-Wittenberg, Germany and in 2025 she was Invited Research Fellow in the Jagiellonian University (Krakow, Poland). As a researcher she has been engaged in several projects relating to Criminal Law, Health Law and to Law Theory, having done research stays in Germany (Bonn and Freiburg), England (Oxford) and Poland (Krakow). She is a founding member of the Arbeitskreis Normentheorie, funded by the Deutscher Forschungsgemeinschaft (DFG) and of the Portuguese Hub of ELI. She was a DAAD Fellow in a research project with the University of Bonn (Germany) and a PhD FCT Fellow. She is the author of several legal titles, published in Portugal and abroad.

Alonso Hurtado

SESIÓN III · SESSION III

ECIJA · ASCOM

Socio de ECIJA y miembro de la Junta Directiva de ASCOM, con más de quince años de experiencia asesorando a grandes empresas españolas e internacionales en derecho TIC, telecomunicaciones, protección de datos, ciberseguridad, comercio electrónico y cumplimiento normativo. Ha participado en la elaboración de normativa sobre identificación electrónica y servicios de confianza en la UE. Fundó el despacho LexTIC (2010). Licenciado en Derecho y máster en Derecho TIC (Universidad Carlos III de Madrid), es profesor asociado en el CEJ, la Universidad Carlos III y el Centro Universitario Villanueva, y vicepresidente de Asuntos Jurídicos de Innova Global Technologies España.

Partner at ECIJA and member of the Board of Directors of ASCOM, with more than fifteen years' experience advising leading Spanish and international companies on IT and telecoms law, data protection, cybersecurity, e-commerce and regulatory compliance. He has contributed to drafting EU rules on electronic identification and trust services. He founded the law firm LexTIC (2010). He holds a law degree and an LLM in IT Law (Universidad Carlos III de Madrid), is an associate professor at CEJ, Universidad Carlos III and Centro Universitario Villanueva, and Vice President of Legal Affairs at Innova Global Technologies España.

Luis Cazorla González-Serrano SESIÓN III · SESSION III

Universidad Rey Juan Carlos · Real Academia de Jurisprudencia y Legislación

Profesor Titular de Derecho Mercantil de la Universidad Rey Juan Carlos, abogado en ejercicio desde 2001 a través del Gabinete Jurídico de la URJC, del que es miembro colaborador, y académico correspondiente de la Real Academia de Jurisprudencia y Legislación. Especialista en Derecho mercantil y gobierno corporativo, Derecho procesal y arbitraje, y Derecho del deporte, trabajó anteriormente en los despachos internacionales Hogan Lovells y Latham & Watkins. Es autor de las monografías «El régimen de responsabilidad de las sociedades profesionales» y «Presidente ejecutivo y gobierno corporativo de las sociedades cotizadas en España», coautor de «Fondos de inversión y actividad deportiva» y autor de numerosos artículos doctrinales, colaboraciones en obras colectivas y publicaciones en prensa jurídica y económica. Imparte docencia en cursos de especialización y posgrado y es ponente habitual en seminarios sobre estas materias.

Tenured Professor of Commercial Law at Rey Juan Carlos University, a practising lawyer since 2001 through the URJC Legal Office, of which he is a collaborating member, and a corresponding academic of the Royal Academy of Jurisprudence and Legislation. Specialising in commercial law and corporate governance, procedural law and arbitration, and sports law, he previously worked at the international firms Hogan Lovells and Latham & Watkins. He is the author of the monographs "The Liability Regime of Professional Companies" and "Executive Chairman and Corporate Governance of Listed Companies in Spain", co-author of "Investment Funds and Sports Activity", and has written numerous scholarly articles, contributions to collective works and pieces in the legal and economic press. He teaches on specialisation and postgraduate courses and is a regular speaker at seminars in these fields.

María del Sagrario Navarro Lérida CLAUSURA · CLOSING

Universidad de Castilla-La Mancha

Profesora Titular de Derecho Mercantil de la Universidad de Castilla-La Mancha. Es miembro del Academic Advisory Body de INATBA y del grupo de trabajo ISO TC 307 WG5 sobre normalización de las tecnologías blockchain y DLT, y miembro experta del Working Group 7 – RWAs Tokenization de Codema Global Rating. Es investigadora principal del proyecto «Finanzas descentralizadas: retos y oportunidades desde la perspectiva del emprendimiento y la educación financiera» (FEDER/JCCM), reconocido como grupo de excelencia en investigación por la Agencia Española de Protección de Datos, e IP2 del proyecto del Plan Estatal «Digitalización y tokenización de los sectores financieros: desafíos regulatorios derivados de las nuevas tecnologías». Ha realizado estancias de investigación en Turín, Bonn y Harvard y ha sido Visiting Professor en la Università degli Studi di Milano. Autora de más de 60 publicaciones científicas, ha sido ponente en numerosos foros nacionales e internacionales (Harvard, Milán, Oporto, Andorra, Chile, Colombia, Argentina y Fráncfort, entre otros) e imparte docencia en cursos internacionales de posgrado y especialización sobre blockchain, DLT e inteligencia artificial. Ha participado en la Sustainability Roundtable «Blockchain for Sustainability» y en el Workshop on «Legal Forms for DAOs: an Assessment of the SCE» de la Comisión Europea, y es miembro de la Asociación de Blockchain de Castilla-La Mancha.

Tenured Professor of Commercial Law at the University of Castilla-La Mancha. She is a member of the INATBA Academic Advisory Body and of ISO TC 307 WG5 on the standardisation of blockchain and DLT technologies, and an expert member of Working Group 7 – RWAs Tokenization at Codema Global Rating. She is principal investigator of the research project "Decentralised Finance: Challenges and Opportunities from the Perspective of Entrepreneurship and Financial Education" (ERDF/JCCM), recognised as a research group of excellence by the Spanish Data Protection Agency, and co-principal investigator of the State Plan project "Digitalisation and Tokenisation of the Financial Sectors: Regulatory Challenges Arising from New Technologies". She has held research stays in Turin, Bonn and Harvard and has been a Visiting Professor at the Università degli Studi di Milano. The author of more than 60 scholarly publications, she has spoken at numerous national and international forums (Harvard, Milan, Porto, Andorra, Chile, Colombia, Argentina and Frankfurt, among others) and teaches on international postgraduate and specialist courses on blockchain, DLT and artificial intelligence. She has taken part in the European Commission's Sustainability Roundtable "Blockchain for Sustainability" and its Workshop on "Legal Forms for DAOs: an Assessment of the SCE", and is a member of the Castilla-La Mancha Blockchain Association.

Organizan · Organised by

Cátedra «DAO académica para la innovación registral y la transformación digital» URJC–Fundación Registral
Chair "Academic DAO for Registry Innovation and Digital Transformation", URJC–Fundación Registral

DYDEM-URJC, Grupo de Investigación de Alto Rendimiento en Digitalización y Derecho de la Empresa de la Universidad Rey Juan Carlos
DYDEM-URJC, High-Performance Research Group on Digitalisation and Business Law, Rey Juan Carlos University

Colaboran · In collaboration with

Proyecto SBPLY/24/180225/000080, «Finanzas descentralizadas: retos y oportunidades desde la perspectiva del emprendimiento y la educación financiera» (2025-2028), financiado por la UE a través del FEDER y por la JCCM a través de INNOCAM. IP: María del Sagrario Navarro Lérida.
Project SBPLY/24/180225/000080, "Decentralised Finance: Challenges and Opportunities from the Perspective of Entrepreneurship and Financial Education" (2025–2028), funded by the EU through the ERDF and by the JCCM through INNOCAM. PI: María del Sagrario Navarro Lérida.

Proyecto PID2025-173771OB-I00, «Digitalización y tokenización de los sectores financieros: desafíos regulatorios derivados de las nuevas tecnologías», Plan Estatal de Investigación Científica, Técnica y de Innovación 2024-2027. IP: Alfredo Muñoz García y María del Sagrario Navarro Lérida.
Project PID2025-173771OB-I00, "Digitalisation and Tokenisation of the Financial Sectors: Regulatory Challenges Arising from New Technologies", State Plan for Scientific, Technical and Innovation Research 2024–2027. PIs: Alfredo Muñoz García and María del Sagrario Navarro Lérida.